

*HVAC Start-up/Service Technician, Variable Frequency Drives***

The Brucker Company is an established HVAC manufacturer's representative of leading brands including ABB variable frequency drives, Greenheck rooftop units, and Price Industries' controls.

The HVAC start-up/service technician is responsible for starting and commissioning variable frequency drives, and with additional experience is responsible for servicing variable frequency drives; performing preventive maintenance service on variable frequency drives; starting and servicing Greenheck rooftop units; and commissioning and servicing Price Industries DDC controls.

*General***

- Position Type: Full Time Non – Exempt (hourly)
- Hours: 8am – 5:00pm Monday through Friday; overtime as required including some nights and weekends.
- Location: Based out of Elk Grove Village, supporting Chicago metro area

*Responsibilities***

- Professionally represents the Company, supporting customer start-up, warranty, and service needs.
- Continually works safely, and to the highest quality standards.
- Start variable frequency drives; service with additional experience; provide preventative maintenance service.
- start and service rooftop units, with additional experience
- commission and service DDC controls, with additional experience
- read and interpret technical drawings and diagrams
- Prioritize and manage daily workload to ensure successful completion
- Maintain service records
- Other duties as assigned

*Education, Skills, Qualifications***

- Technical Associates degree required; equivalent direct industry experience considered.
- Requires thorough knowledge of how to work safely, and does work safely.
- Requires thorough knowledge of AC and DC electrical systems
- Requires a working knowledge of HVAC systems and HVAC controls.
- Requires ability to read and interpret technical drawings and manuals
- Requires ability to work with vendor software and Microsoft office products
- Organized and motivated self-starter. Works well independently with minimal direction.
- Dedicated –Committed to servicing customers, performing quality work safely, and getting the job done.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills: Professionally represents the Company.
- Requires use of hand tools provided by employee
- A clean driving record and valid driver's license are mandatory
- Possess and maintain a motor vehicle record that meets company safety and insurance standards.
- Able to read and write in English
- Able to work in construction jobsite or replacement/repair conditions and lift 50-75 pounds on a regular basis. Must be able to work from a ladder to perform duties.

Experience

- 5 years or more of relevant industry experience as a service engineer or technician

*Compensation structure***

- Competitive hourly compensation.
- Expenses reimbursed. Company van available for service use
- Benefits, including health insurance, made available.